What drove the quarter

The Stripe webhooks rework eliminated the double-invoicing class of billing alerts, and chargeback handling automation cut manual finance hours by half. Salesforce sync now reconciles accounts nightly, which closed the audit gap flagged last quarter. Promo code engine abuse controls recovered an estimated $180K.

Risks and asks

Usage billing accuracy depends on the Kafka event bus during the EKS upgrade — engineering has a rollback strategy staged. Finance asks for headcount to cover subscription lifecycle audits ahead of the enterprise launch.
